I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

Dear Gini,

I was deeply saddened to read in Saturday's Courier-Post of Fred's passing. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your loss. You and your family remain in my thoughts and prayers. May the love and memories you shared over the years help to sustain you during this most difficult time.

Sincerely,

Hal Melleby

To the Doolittle Family,
I so much enjoyed Fred's company. We would discuss all things but I'll always remember our talks on the theory of relativity, time, and space - easy topics for him! Please accept my deepest sympathy for you and I hope and pray you find God's peace and comfort.

Sincerely,
Ken Lechner

Gina, Nicole, Chris....
We were deeply saddened to learn of Fred's passing. We will always remember him as a kind, thoughtful and smart man. He had a wonderful and friendly way, not to mention his great sense of humor. Please accept our deepest sympathy and we will keep him in our prayers.
Love,
Robyn and Peter Mascari
