Whenever I visited your home, she always made everyone feel important and welcome.We never left there hungry because she always had something good cooking in her kitchen. Joan, Tricia, and Boyd: I was so sad the read the notice of your mother's passing in the morning paper. The Gainey family has meant so much to the McInvaill and Bessant families over so many years during our time in Conway and the surrounding area. I will always remember your mother's friendliness and her famous cakes!

Joan, please contact your husband, Larry C. Juzwiak, in Kalamazoo , MI. His health is compromised and he would find comfort in talking with you, regardless of your indiscretions so many years ago in Conway.

Larry is a good man and, as his friend of nearly 40 years, he would benefit in hearing from you.

I'll gladly supply you with his phone number if you can contact me. Please have a kind heart for that young man who has loved you dearly.
