Robert was always the best papa in the world. Caleb and Rylei miss him so much. I used to love catching him snuggling Rylei on his chest while sitting in his recliner in the sunroom, watching jeopardy. We will miss him very much!

Robert's death comes aa huge shock to our entire family. We will miss his warm smile and laughter. Robert loves talking to the kids and Ruby over the fence in our bank yard. He was always out there doing something when he was home. Either working in the shop, blowing leaves out of the gutter or riding on the lawn mower picking them up. Always working. We will miss him immensely and no one will fill his shoes. Hugs miss Emma Jean, and know we are always here if you need anything. Beth and family.

Prayers for Robert's family. He was such a wonderful man who loved his wife, children, family and his church. He was a wonderful asset in the building addition of our church, and his meticulous craftsmanship shows. There are too numerous occasions he & Emma Jean joined in trips & fellowships to mention. Robert will be greatly missed.

Theresa and I were shocked to hear of Robert's death. He was a truly remarkable craftsman and it was a joy to work with him on several difficult projects. He was always so kind and soft spoken. We will miss him more than words can say. We find it difficult to see the purpose in God's timing and can only continue our trust in Him as he leads and directs our lives.
