

Brendan Joseph Curran

January 12, 1966 - May 1, 2021

Brendan Joseph Curran, 55, of Myrtle Beach, passed away unexpectedly at his home on May 1, 2021. Brendan was born January 12, 1966 in Woodside, Queens, New York, a son of the late Patrick and Elizabeth Curran.

Brendan moved to Myrtle Beach 17 years ago and started his own business (Trinity Contracting) after leaving the Carpenter's Union Local #608 in Manhattan, which he was a part of for 20 years. He was a highly skilled and talented craftsman that took great pride in his work. His ambition in life for new projects had no limits.

He had a quick wit and was well known for his sense of humor and loved telling his stories. He loved Irish music with a cold bottle of Bud and an ice-cold glass. His favorite hobbies were shooting pool, playing chess and darts. He loved his friends and family to the bottom of his soul and would do anything for them. Brendan was a savior for many, a warrior angel, kind and patient. His life was full of love and labor. He was a huge animal lover and he spent a lot of his free time with his cat Tigger and his dog Bria. He was taken from us too soon. He will be missed by many. Brendan has touched the hearts of so many people. He had friends on both sides of the pond; in Ireland and the USA. We love you Brendan always and forever in our hearts and souls.

Brendan is survived by a large and loving family, including his devoted wife Katrina, his son Colin, in-laws Ginger and Ronny, his brothers and sisters and in-laws Kevin and Susie, Emmett and Diane, Brian and Carol, Sean and Lisa, Deidre and Josie, Oliver and Eileen, Anne and Nuala, his goddaughter Kaitlin, as well as many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.

A visitation with family and friends will be held on Wednesday, May 5 from 2 – 4 PM and again from 7 – 9 PM at Goldfinch Funeral Home – Carolina Forest Chapel (325 Hinson Drive, Myrtle Beach, SC 29579). A funeral service will be held on Thursday, May 6 at 11 AM, also at Goldfinch Funeral Home, with Deacon Robert Barlow officiating.

“ very sorry to hear about Brendan , my cousin ...a terrible shock.. much too soon. I have thought of him a lot since I heard and have watched the beautiful picture video.

In the rare times we saw each other recently ..we spoke of his baseball and sports card collection. He remembered me collecting them when I was younger . He outdid me by far as he explained the meticulous conditions he kept those cards which i could never do.

My deepest condolences to all my Curran cousins and Brendan's wife and son.

... please let me know if there is a memorial in New York in the future.

“ My condolences to his wife, Katrina and immediate family and friends.

The loss of life is devastating. But to find out it is the loss of someone who is admired for his sense of humor, hard working ethnicity, the laughter you hear behind a snickering remark, and the kind words you hear when you need it the most is heartbreaking.

In Myrtle Beach, Brenden was a customer at the Home Depot for as long as I can remember. Brenden would say hello and stop to chat for a minute or two, and hurry on his way. Brenden was a guy who had something to say about something, which was refreshing knowing we are all the same. Whether you agree or disagree, Brenden had a big heart. Occasionally, I'd run into his wife and him at the supermarket. He always had a smile.

You will be missed ~Rest in Peace.~
Watch over us all as another Angel in the sky.

“ Brendan I'll always treasure the many memories I have of you, but especially when we were kids. You never made us feel like the annoying gaggle of girls we probably were. I'll love you forever and my heart is with the Curran family today.

“ I am truly heartbroken over this. I cannot believe that you're gone. Our dinners together were some of the best nights out carmela and I had. Never-ending laughs.. God bless you Brendan, May God keep you in his loving arms. God bless you Katrina, and please God, help her and Brendan's family through this most difficult time. Katrina, we are here for you. Love, Paul Abajian

“ I am both stunned and speechless upon the discovery of Brendan's passing . We met in 1980 as classmates in 1980 at jhs125- class of 1982. We met up in Shirley Long Island and in South Carolina back in2013. We exchanged the joys of family and lost friends. Curran family please accept my deepest condolences. Marco Novak

“ We met about 10 yrs ago in a crazy way work related. Since then it is the random calls just checking in on each other and shooting the crap about work and family. I can say he loved his family and was always a good person to talk to. It is sad to hear of his passing he was a great man and I will miss our random conversations. May you Rest In Peace my friend

“ I first met Brendan 50 years ago. He was a wee 5 year old child. I was on my first date with a great guy, Shaun (we married soon after). He took me to Brooklyn and introduced me to all the Curran's. Lily, Pat, Maurade, Rose, so many wonderful Curran's who welcomed me with céad míle fáilte and 10 wonderful Curran children. So hard to understand that Brendan has passed away. He had so many more wonderful years ahead of him. Only God has the answer to the question, Why?? My condolences to Brendan's family, all the Curran's, Baxter's, etc. Rest in Peace, Brendan. Love Pat Dowling

“ I was 17 when I first met Brendon. He was probably one of the biggest ahole I ever met in my life but after awhile he starts to grow on you then it was like you have to have him around to get your day going. You couldnt help but love Brendon. The man guided me not just through work but life. He was always there when you needed him. He was always there to listen. And he was always there to pick you up when you fall. I respected him as he was my own father. I have a lot of memories with that man to many to write down. Just know Brendon I love you and thank you for showing me the way and I will deeply miss you my friend.

“ We will miss you my brother
And you will be forever in our thoughts and prayers
A true brother and friend
My heart is broken
And until we meet again
May God accept you with open arms
Welcome you as his child
Bless you with forgiveness and
Accept you into his kingdom
Amen
