“ Carolyn was a special cousin. We shared many great times together, especially on holidays and at family reunions. I'm so glad we were able to visit in September. Rest in peace, sweet lady. My prayers are with your family.

“ My wife and I are deeply saddened by the passing of cousin, Carolyn Malcolm. I knew Carolyn all my life. We grew up together in a small town, were enrolled in the same elementary and high school classes, and participated in similar social and community events.

Carolyn was a lovely, outgoing, and caring individual who always made you feel welcome when you visited her home. We loved sharing memories on her porch in Merrells Inlet, visiting local antique and collectibles stores, and riding to the beach in her Carolina Girl golf cart, which she always drove with the pedal down and a big smile on her face.

We love and miss you, Carolyn. Your presence is gone from our sight, but will remain always in our hearts.

“ Carolyn's golf cart -- loaded with friends -- was a familiar sight around our neighborhood and wherever she pulled up, laughter and fun followed. She was a beautiful, gentle soul who radiated warmth and friendliness. We are grateful for the happiness she brought to the world. Wesley and Susan Temple
