“ I know that you're gone but I am still in shock, you were so young and you left us way too soon. I know you as my corky and eccentric aunt, you have always been there when we needed a good laugh, you were the type of person to speak what was on your mind and thats what i loved about you. I remember when my mom bought the wrong kind of sausage BY ACCIDENT and aunt Denise was furious, only because she wanted us to taste the best jumpleiah. My aunt Denise was hopeful and she never gave up but she is in a better place and i will never forget her. You will forever be in my heart and i will always think about you.<333

“ I've been meaning to write on here but this past week I'm lost for words. Losing you is like losing the top of the pyramid for this family. I still can't believe that you're gone but knowing you're not in pain anymore keeps us at ease. Every memory I have with you is a happy/funny one and that's how I'll always remember you. R.i.p aunt Denise. I love and miss you everyday.

“ I will truly miss you D. I still keep shaking my head in disbelief. I will always remember remember the time I called you from the grocery store and ask which one of these jars of spaghetti sauces taste closest to yours and you told me to get out the store now and don't ever call an Sicilian Italian girl and ask that again. I'm sorry gravy as you called it . You also showed me how to flavor my own olive oil . Bam ! I'm still doing it. I'm really going to miss your recipes. Maybe I'll finally lose that 2 pounds I've been trying to get off. Haha. Remember all our talks in Olive Garden Red Lobster Joe's Crab Shack you always said let's get something to eat and talk. You would take pictures of me and quez eating crabs. Remember when we got the waitress to sing Happy Birthday and it was not my birthday hahaha but we tipped her well I'm going to miss you I will be there for your boys whenever they need me I hope you understand how much your Mom mean it to me. Rest easy my friend you have raised two wonderful boys and all the other kids you called yours.
