“ Brian, Greg and Kent, my thoughts and prayers go to you at this difficult time. I have the best memories of your mother and the impact she had on my life while I went to NCBC. She was always such a sweet Godly woman. I saw her a few years ago and it was so nice to be to re-connect. Praying for you all!

“ Our church has lost a precious soul, Heaven has gained a saint. Thank you Lord for sharing Helen with us all these years. She taught both of my sons in Sunday School many years ago. She loved the little children very much. She loved her sons and continually prayed for them. For as long as I can remember she and Mr. Charlie cared about and loved me and I loved them. I will miss Ms. Helen and her beautiful smile but I know I will see her again

Brian, Greg and Kent, you had a wonderful mama and she loved all of you with all her heart. Although those of us who are left behind are grieving, there is rejoicing in Heaven. Say hey to my daddy.

“ The gates of heaven opened wide to receive this magnificent lady. Helen Webster was the epitome of a true southern lady. She eluded grace and quiet dignity. Mrs. Helen talked the talk of faith but more importantly- she walked the walk. She and Mr. Charlie cared deeply for all people within their sphere of influence. I will never forget the many kind words and sweet encouraging . I am confident that Mr. Charlie was standing at the gate. with a huge smile. God richly blessed all of us who were privileged to know her. Thank you to her family for sharing her. May God's abundant mercies sustain you during this time.

“ Sparkling blue eyes, quick witted and a fantastic sense of humor. Most of all, a woman of many virtues, loved by all who knew her and devoted to her family. I was blessed to know Helen and wish the comfort of the Lord and the many memories sustain all of us who loved her. No more pain, no more sorrow. Helen is at peace.

“ Brian, Greg, Kent,
I'm so sorry to hear about your Mom. I remember her teaching me in Sunday School quite a few years ago, and also a teacher to my daughters. I loved her and your father and will always be grateful to them for their love and service to our Lord and to all they came in contact with.

“ Grace Henderson introduced me to her sister Helen. We picked some blueberries at Charlie' s blueberry patch. Afterwards, we visited with Helen and ate some of her delicious squash casserole. I asked for the recipe. I visited Helen with Grace several times and was always treated like an old friend. Those were special times. It was so obvious that Helen loved her family and friends. I am blessed to have known her.

Love and prayers to all her loved ones.

“ Brian, Greg, Kent and Ms. Webster's family - May God comfort y'all during this time. I pray that y'all take comfort in knowing that she's in heaven and she is in no more pain. She was one of my mothers growing up and the last time I saw her she was as sharp as ever and her blue eyes were sparkling. She loved her family and was a true Christian and southern lady.
