“ I was so sad to hear of Lou's passing. Lou was one of my customers at Pawley's Island Pharmacy who was always fun to take care of. Being from NY state myself, we had some nice conversations about NY. I think my favorite interaction was one day when he came through the drive through. I saw this beautiful black sports car with tinted windows drive up and thought " Wow-nice car-I wonder who this is?" Well the window rolled down & there was Lou. He was not in a good mood as he had just gotten a speeding ticket. He told me the whole story & said he was going to fight it. I told him that was where my husband got his speeding ticket too. A few weeks later he was back & was so proud that he had the ticket thrown out. He told me the story & I was so impressed at his determination. I had to tease him & tell him not to speed any more. I so enjoyed our conversations and will miss our talks. God Bless you Lou & watch the speed limit in heaven.

“ as sadness abounds for friends lost, Lou will be remembered as the funniest, kindest and most generous of people. May caring from others help you be at peace. We will miss Lou in Casablanca Rug Shop and he and Caren at Sunday breakfast at Applewoods!
