“ Hi, Carol,
I was so sorry to hear about your Mom! It's a hard loss. I guess I haven't seen you since we were at ESC Region 12 -- I retired in 2014. Much love to you and your boys and I know memories of your Mom will be with you always.

“ Ms Tiz was an incredibly beautiful southern lady. I am very fortunate to have known her. She was full of grace, goodwill and love for people. Lunch at Sea Captains House with her is one of my favorite memories of my visits to Myrtle Beach. I am firmly convinced that her car could not go below 60 miles an hour. That blue Pontiac could tear up the road. Rest in peace sweet lady.

“ Carol, I'm sorry for the loss of your beloved mother, as I know how dear she was to you, and how much you did to make her last decade on earth easier. I hope envisioning her in heaven, with our Lord and your daddy, gives you a sense of peace and comfort. You, Betty Ann, your sons and grandchildren will be in my thoughts and prayers.
