“ Ray and Joan was a Very Special couple we would see at The Alabama Theater where Patsy and I serve as ushers. They were wonderful supporters and always were bragging on the Cast and Crew at the theater. Ray always had that firm handshake and Joan always gave us a hug and kiss on the cheek. They are greatly missed.

“ Ray and Joan were two of the nicest people I have ever known. Those of us who work at the Alabama Theatre knew Ray and Joan as two of our annual ticket holders who always sat in the front row every Thursday. These two wonderful people would always greet us with a handshake from Ray, and a hug and a kiss from Joan. Thursdays will never be the same. They will be missed. Ron Wilson and Kay Batten

“ So very sorry to learn of your beloved parents passing away. It is one of the hardest things children and family have to go through.

We only knew Ray & Joan as neighbors down the road from them. Very sweet people.

They came to one of our picnics some years ago.

May our Lord wrap His comforting, peaceful , loving arms around each of you., During

tHis time of sadness and loss.
