“ Ellen,

I was a first cousin to Richard from York, Heath Springs, and Lancaster when we were kids. Based on the comments shared from those who knew him later in life, I missed out on not keeping in touch with him. He and Pam were a part of a large family that stayed close for many years, but time, life and circumstances moved between us. Yours must be a terrible loss but you have to be comforted by his accomplishments and the warm comments by all who knew him in later life.

God Bless,
John Miller

“ I have known Rick for many years doing his pedi mani. I am blessed to have known him for he was a very caring, smart and wonderful person and with his big smile he could light up your cloudy day. He called me his toe BFF (which I will miss that nickname he gave me terribly). Most of all I will miss him for his being Rick. May God bless you Ellen and family with peace, comfort and strength during this difficult time.

“ My memories with Rick go way back to Lancaster Junior High and to Lancaster Senior High. The teachers always had us seated in alphabetical order, of course. With my last name as McAlister and Rick's as Miller, we knew our seats would be close, and we could talk and give each other answers (as long as we didn't get caught). We were lucky cause those teachers never saw a thing! My memories of Rick are of funny silly times. Rick Miller was a good guy that everyone loved!
