“ I've known Bobby since the late 1960's when we were stationed over in Scotland on the USS Simon Lake (which is now razor blades). Bobby, Doug Lally who died 2 years ago at 71 and myself Bob Malchiodi, were a team over in Scotland. After the Navy, we meaning Doug and I would see Bobby at the Port Authority bus terminal quite often when he worked for Bonanza, and when Bobby and Dottie moved to Connecticut, I would stop by to say hello.

When they moved to South Carolina, I only had the chance to see Bobby and Dottie once which is unfortunate because I was too busy which I deeply regret. Bobby was the smartest person I knew aside from (of cost) Dottie, he was very logical, and very smart in everything he did (except for that wooden hull sail boat that he bought). He was very sincere with the people he knew and always concerned with their well being. Bobby will surely be missed and as for their marriage, at least they were always in love for all the years because mine and Dougs marriage didn't do so well. Dottie I congratulate you for living such a wonderful life with Bobby and all the fond memories that you both must have had together. He will be surely be missed. I thank you for letting me be yours and Bobby's friend

“ Bob, my buddy. Until this Covid crap Bob and I would have drinks and smoke cigars on his patio. We became good friends on a bus trip 6 years ago. There have been many good times since. Bob and I have the Us nAvy as a comon denominator. We actual served on the same ship a few years apart. Will miss my buddy.

“ Love you uncle Bob!! Remember you were the “fun” unlace even though when Matt and I were kids we told our dad not to let you play with our Christmas toys because you had a reputation for breaking them. But I remember you were the one who taught me how to “drive stick” on aunt Dottie’s Toyota and slipped me some money after a trip to Stevens. I remember the trips to Connecticut and visiting you two at the Mohegan Sun and you were the one who bought me my first casino dice. Swapping stories with Dave Wilson while getting a little looped on my homemade wine, The Galloping Pig, was a great time remembering all trouble you got in as a kid with you friend Dave. I hope your up in heaven with a glass of red wine and a big fat stogie looking down on us and a life well lived. Peace uncle!!

“ My Uncle Bob was a fun loving whimsical man whose infectious laugh was contagious. Although we were far away distance wise, I always had him near to me when I remember his lispy stories of his greyhound bus driver stories, card dealing, & sports moments. And yes, I still don't like the Yankees Uncle Bob!! He complemented my Aunt Dorothy very well! They were very close & will always be close! I'll miss you already!!!

“ May you rest in heavenly peace Bob. I will always remember your passion for life. I've been blessed, memories with both you & Dottie, going back to our youth that will always be treasured. The 'Old Crew' back in the day gave us a lifetime of laughter for years to come & you always loved telling those stories. Fly high with the angels in heaven and I will always remember your beautiful smile. Love, Theresa
