“ I worked with Sally at Miss-Master Children Shoppe for many years. Sally was a very dependable employee, you could always count on her to be at her job when told to . She had a loving heart and never showed any anger. Her passion was her “fur” family she had at home. She loved and cared for her little friends with all her love. Her other love was her son David and spoke of him often. Sally, rest with Jesus, your “fur” babies are taken care of. You were a great friend and I’ll miss you but we’ll meet again soon .

“ Sally was my best friend from first grade on and we shared many life experiences. It brings a smile to think of how adventurous she was even as a child and how many fun times we had. Her loyal companionship will be missed and I was so fortunate to have had her in my life.
