Sidney Keith Fisher, age 84, passed away Wednesday, May 20, 2020, at National Health Care, Garden City, SC.

Born in Sac City, Iowa, he was the son of the late Robert and Lois Fisher. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 65 years, Marilyn; his brothers, Eugene and Robert Fisher; and his beloved daughter, Teresa Noller.

Survivors include daughters, Treva Zombro of Myrtle Beach, SC, and Sylvia Fisher of Ruskin, FL; son, Brian (Robin) Fisher of Bradenton, FL; son-in-law, David Noller of Blacksburg, VA; grandchildren, Matthew and Alec Noller, Dayna Urban, Ricky and Steven (Kristi) Zombro; great-grandchildren, Kylah and Ethan Urban, and brother, Harlan Fisher. Mr. Fisher retired from the US Army, highly decorated, at the rank of Major. His Army career spanned 20 years, initially as a paratrooper, rising through the years to become a Finance Comptroller. He served overseas in Korea, Japan and Vietnam. After retirement from the Army, he served as a Finance Comptroller for the city of Des Moines, IA.

Sid had many hobbies and interests. Genealogy, tracing the family tree back to the 1600s. Fishing, as an accomplished tournament bass fisherman receiving many trophies, and as a recreational fisherman. He loved gardening and bar-be-cueing for his family. He enjoyed online gaming with his grandsons, and Dungeons and Dragons with his son, and was an avid reader.

“ Not many people know, probably, that Sid like to play computer games online. Brian and I, and later Ricky, played Diablo with Sid, as well as Everquest (briefly). Sid was never really very good at Everquest (I found his character once, Boris Pindar maybe, I don't remember for sure, standing quietly, patiently, stuck on a hill, not moving), but he really liked the hack and slash of Diablo.

Sid had a wry sense of humor, the standing joke in the family was to show two identical photos of Sid (not smiling) and tr to guess which one was the smile. Sid did smile, but it was in his eyes and you had to look for it. (as it turns out, Sid's grandson, Matt, is just like Sid in this regard).

Sid was my father-in-law, but I thought of him as my father, and I believe he thought of me as a son. He was always good to me and I will miss him dearly.
