“ She was like a second mother to me. Her kind, loving and gentle demeanor was her trademark of life. She was a true woman of God. Heaven has indeed gained a precious shining jewel. She is with W.G. and many other good folks. To Bill, Rick, and Teresa, be comforted by knowing how very much she was loved and cherished. She will be missed by those of us who knew her, but never forgotten. Her life here on earth will forever exemplify a perfect example of Christianity.
