

William "Bill" Solon Livingston, Jr.

August 24, 1927 - February 2, 2013

William "Bill" Solon Livingston, Jr., age 85, of Conway passed away February 2, 2013, at Grand Strand Regional Medical Center. He was born in the Dogwood Neck community on August 24, 1927, a son of the late William Solon Livingston, Sr. and Mossie Anna Stanley.

Mr. Livingston was retired from the retail industry, construction and farming and was also a Navy veteran. In his later years, he enjoyed creating a vineyard at his home, on the property where he attended school as a child. Mr. Livingston was predeceased by his wife of 58 years, Virginia Wood Livingston and four sisters, Letha Chestnut, Nina Watson Edge, Hazel Pugh and Pauline Cannon.

Mr. Livingston is survived by his three children, William Solon Livingston, III of Conway, Paula Reep and her husband Terry of Waynesville, NC, and Jerri Woodle and her husband Joe of Conway; two grandsons, Phillip Reep of Greenville, SC and Logan Woodle of Conway; four great-grandchildren, Holly, Drew, Heaven and Blake; and one sister, Myrtle Edge of North Myrtle Beach.

Graveside services will be held Monday, February 4, 2013, at 2:00 p.m. from the Livingston Family Cemetery with his sons-in-law Rev. Terry Reep and Mr. Joe Woodle officiating.

The family will greet friends at the cemetery following the service.

“ Dear Jerri, Paula, and William,

I was saddened to hear of the death of your father. Each time I'm "down home", I drive past your parent's house and "go back in time" and think of them fondly. Each trip to the area becomes more difficult, as more and more homes no longer house the folks I once knew. I think of your dad and his love for his planting and grapes and your mother and how much she loved you all. When I taught Phillip, I saw her almost daily, as she made the long drive to Waccamaw to pick him up. I pray your fond memories of your dad (and mom) will sustain you in the days and years ahead.

“ Jerri, Paula and William, I just learned of Mr. Billy's death. I'm so sorry for your loss. Your family has always been so special to me. His death, like that of your mother, leaves another hole in my heart too.
I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To the Livingston Family:

May the memories of a life well-lived help comfort you during this difficult time. And may the strength that God provides, sustain you. (Psalm 46:1)

My condolences,
SJB.
