

A. Edward Thompson

August 10, 2004

A. Edward Thompson, age 78 of Jamestown Colony died Monday, August 10, 2004 at Grand Strand HealthCare. Born November 27, 1925 in Collingdale, PA, he was the son of the late Richmond and Ena Lambert Thompson. Mr. Thompson was US Marine veteran serving as a Captain in World War II and the Korean Conflict. Mr. Thompson had retired from sales in the industrial steel industry. Surviving are his wife of 54 years, Ruth Elaine Thompson; son. Rick Thompson and wife Sally of AK; daughter, Diane Keybida and husband Dr. Robert Keybida of NJ; six grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Private inurnment will be in Florence National Cemetery with military honors directed by Goldfinch Funeral Home, Beach Chapel. Memorials may be made to Deborah Hospital, Browns Mills, NJ.

Tribute Wall

“ Dear Ruth, We were so sorry to hear of Ed's passing. Please extend our sympathies to your family. Please keep in touch. Jim and Carolyn Shinn###imported-begin###Harold T. Shinn###imported-end##

August 12, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ So sorry to hear about Mr Thompson. I have fond memories of hanging out at your house, playing ball, and having fun with your family. It was like a second home to me. My heartfelt condolences to Mrs Thompson, Ricky and Diane and families. Davey Jones###imported-begin###walter Jones###imported-end##

August 11, 2004 at 12:00 AM