“ Aggie was such a precious, gentle soul. She had so much love to give. My husband and I were SO blessed that we had her in our lives! We had so much fun getting to know her and she will be missed. The world is a much sadder place without sweet Aggie. The only thing that makes our loss easier, is knowing she is in the Lords hands and she’s been reunited with the people she loves! My deepest, heartfelt sympathies.

“ I loved meeting Aggie 3 years ago at an art retreat, with her daughter Vicky, we had the greatest time together and we would talk a lot during that trip and she reminded me of my mom, one day she was chilly it was a rainy day and I went to my room and got my new sweater and brought it to her and she looked so good in it I told her I wanted her to have it. She was the sweetest woman. God bless you my sweet friend, love DiDi

“ I was so sorry to read the passing of Agnes (Agie) today; She was such a loving and caring person. Agie would call me often to check on my niece, Mary, who is in the Nursing Home. They were close friends. May God grant you peace and comfort now and in the days ahead.
