“ Life seems to have flown by too quickly and all the special people that I have known and loved are leaving! Mr. Di, you were truly an angel on earth! You were a family man, father, business man and a friend, You gave your all and you are probably one of the last of the true gentleman. I have so many wonderful memories of you throughout my life but I will always remember how special you made me feel! Always offering whatever you had and always with a smile. You endured many tragedies and you remained a rock to all who knew and loved you! These are just a few of the things I will always hold dear to my heart. God Bless you and keep you and I know you are already beyond those gates and the celebration has begun! You are now with so many of our loved ones that have awaited you, please send my love to all. I know you are preparing a round of Tom Collins!!! Rest, enjoy and know that you will be forever missed until we all meet again. Love you, Barbara Motta XOXO
