“ I wrote a poem tonight and dedicate it to the memory of Al. Taken Away You were taken away so suddenly, so fast. But our visions of you will always last you were great to everyone you knew. I am so saddened by how fast the time flew. You were always there with us, Ju-Ju from the start. You will always remain in our heart. When it is our time to go we know you will shine the light to guide are way. And we will all be together someday. My prayers and condolences to the family. “ AI, we've always joked about me being two days older than you. Now you're forever young. This poem I dedicate to you. They that love beyond the world cannot be separated by it. Death cannot kill what never dies. Nor can spirits ever be divided that love and live in the same divine principle: the root and record of their friendship. If absence be not death, neither is theirs. Death is but crossing the world, as friends do the sea; ...they live for one another still. This is the comfort of friends: that though they may be said to die, yet their friendship and society are, in the best sense immortal, because they are ever present. Your childhood & lifelong friend, Linda###imported-begin###Linda Cockfield###imported-end###

“ I was very sad to hear of the death of my friend. Al and I played baseball and softball together during and just after our high school days. I still have a photo on my bar at home of Al and I after one of our games. Although we lost touch over these many years I will alway consider him one of my buddies for life, it makes me sad to know that "JuJu" is gone. I'm so very sorry for your loss. “ Shelly: With such a sudden loss of the one you call your other half. With the words that are shared from friends and relatives that can not be comprehended. With the strength you will show until the final goodbye. Then you will experience the empty feeling the missing half, but please remember you are not alone. With the support of your family, friends, coworkers, neighbors, etc., you will be able to pull yourself through. But it will be the one who is watching over you that will give you the strength you need, and this is your "Al". Al will never go away, this is a bond you will share through all eternity and then on. Shelly, god bless you and your family through out this time. Pattie Reiter WolfHulbert LLC##imported-begin##Pattie Reiter##imported-end##
