“ Here's a good Bud story...I was about 16 or so, and we were at Round Lake in the spring time. Bud and I decided to go water skiing, but to do a "dock start" because the water was still freezing. Your dad drove for me first. We just had a little 18 horse Evinrude. You had to leave about 20 feet of slack rope to pull us up even though neither one of us weighed 150 pounds. Bud took me around a few times and I whipped myself so that I could run out of the skis right up onto the yard. Then, it was your dad's turn wearing his black cowboy hat. He got snapped right up, and we made a few trips around the lake. Out in the middle of the lake, I cut the motor. Your dad started sinking into the freezing water..."YOU $%&*!" He yelled at me. Pretty soon, all you see was the cowboy hat floating. What good times we all had!

Love to you and your mom...Dick

“ Jo Ann and family,
My prayers are with you and your family in this difficult time. I loved Bud as like my own Dad and I will miss him tremendously. I know now though that he at peace and doesn't have any more illnesses and he is enjoying all the beauty of friends and family in heaven. He rests now with the angels and in God's arms and no more hurt or harm can come to him. Hopefully he has hooked up with my Mama and they can get a Euchre game going. They loved each other also. If there is anything I can help you with I'm only a phone call away. Bud, Go rest high on that mountain buddy, and till we meet again I'll help and take care of Jo Ann for you

Love yah and miss you
Sandy
