“ Albert was a great brother in-law and a wonderful brother to David and his other siblings. He loved music and enjoyed listening to David play guitar and piano when ever he visited with us. The old classics, especially the Beatles, was often enjoyed by both. Our kids loved his collection of records and listening to his jukebox. He was a hard worker but loved his retirement and spending time at the beach. He enjoyed cars and came up to Maryland a few years ago to buy his sporty Charger, come to find out he sold it because it was "too much car to handle". Albert loved his family. Carol and Laura, we know you will miss him a lot. Our hearts and prayers are with you always.

“ We moved in next door to Al and Carol 6 years ago. We had many long "over the hedge " talks that led to a great friendship. He was always outside detailing his cars or tidying his yard. Always a wave and friendly greeting. Wonderful friend and neighbor. He is and will be missed.

“ Al called me “The Bon.” He’d see me and ask “How’s the Bon today?” Always made me smile. He and I loved our Dairy Queen’s. Our spouses tolerated it. He mashed the potatoes at dinner at their house so to this day I always think of him when I’m making mine. I loved his friendship and miss him. Love, Bonnie

“ Al...a true and lasting friend from the time we met some 26 years ago. We continued to visit and call each other even after we moved away years ago. We shared memories, highs and lows and gave each other encouragement when needed. I miss you my friend.

“ Every time I would have an encounter with Al when Jim was still alive he would always ask how Jim was doing and feeling and that Jim was in his thoughts and prayers. Al was a very kind and caring person. Carol and Laura I will continue to keep you in my thoughts and prayers. My deepest sympathies.

“ I did not spend a lot of time with Al, him and Carol were great friends with my parents - but whenever I saw him, he filled a room with positive energy and a big smile, so friendly, so easy to be around. Carol and Laura, I am so very sorry for your loss. Love, Tiffanie
