A memorial service will be held at Arlington National Cemetery at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, the family makes the following request: Please go to your local grocery store and buy a small bundle of flowers to take to the Memory

Care Unit of your local senior care home. Ask the nurse to direct you to a resident who has not had a visitor recently, then spend a few minutes visiting with them. You will shine a light on them for the day, but more importantly, you will become a better person for it.

“ Did not know Alice, but i do know her son Steve. How honored he must feel to be able to lay down a career as the manager of an airport operation in order to take care of his ailing mother. little did he know that in the matter of of less then a year, his beautiful mother would be gone. During these months he was handed many situations he was not prepared for but he never complained. He merely jumped the hurdle and continued to the next episode. To make this short, I envy him. i hope he taught everyone, with a parent alive, a lesson. Job well done Sir.

“ What a wonderful and sweet woman. She will be truly missed. I remember the first time I met her. She was so nice and cordial. A true southern woman even though she came from the north. May she Rest In Peace.
