“ My parents, The Revernd Rod Hobart and Ruth Hobart were fond friends of Pete a Alice for many years. When my father was the minster at St. Luke's Episcopal in Conway from 1958 -1965 they had many great times together. After retiring back here in Myrtle Beach they enjoyed coming over for afternoon visit. May her children, grandchildren and extended be comforted in that she will be well received into God's arms.

“ Alice Wingo Byrd was a true Southern Lady with a lot of Class. She was a great and interesting conversationalist and I will dearly miss her. Alice was a trooper and fought the good fight to the end of her journey here, and now she has received the ultimate Peace that was waiting for her. To her Family, I pray for God's Comfort, Peace and Love to each of you.
