“ *Whitey and Family,
So sorry to here of the loss of your beautiful wife Alice. No words can express the true feelings that are within you. We enjoyed so much the golf cart parades you and Alice participated in, stopping at all the houses in Surfside Beach Club throwing candy to all of us spectators. Now her pain and suffering is over. She will be reunited with her other family members, but here on earth she will never be forgotten. Semper Fi Whitey. Stay strong as you have always been. Our deepest condolences to you and your family.
Respectfully,
Bob & Barbara Brustman, Hack Court*

“ My husband and I moved from New York to Connecticut 20 years ago and was very lucky to have moved in next to Alice and Whitey at Summerhill. We have no family in CT and were New to the area and we quickly became friends with them. They welcomed us into their lives and were there for support and advice. Alice always included us in their family gatherings so that we wouldn't be alone during holidays. Over the years we had many cookout barbecues and holidays that were shared them and it meant the world to us. Over the years I also observed what a wonderful mother, grandmother and wife Alice was and known as Noonie to her grandchildren and doted on them. Her eyes always lit up and she'd be all smiles whenever she talked of her grandchildren and whenever we talked about any of them, they were her pride and joy without a doubt. We missed them terribly when they moved away and Alice will always be missed.

"Chances made us neighbors but the fun and laughter we shared made us friends." Our hearts go out to Whitey and the Meydag family, rest in peace Alice. Love, Kevin, Christina and Katie Lombino
