“ *There are few among us as beautiful in spirit than Alice. Her presence lit up every room, her compassion & loving overwhelmed us all. She tolerated those who could not recover from their vice and all the while lifted all others who saw past it. I for one will forever hold Alice Tiches in my most treasured and deepest memory. “ To the two daughters who always came to the pool,

My thoughts and prayers go out to your family. Although, I had never met your mother, I must say she brought up polite and friendly girls. I'll miss you coming to our pool.

“ We have such fond memories of Alice & her husband as they supported any youth activity at St John's church, How often she would bring in bread for events and bake sales that John had made. Always so kind to the children and willing to serve the church. She always greeted everyone with a smile. Memory Eternal. The Merisotis Family

“ Our hearts are so very saddened...our very dear neighbor and friend has gone to join her beloved John. Our sincere thoughts and prayers are with you all..her dedicated and loving family. Denise, Deena and Natalia...I will especially miss this beautiful, kind and caring woman who became my "second Mom". Her "Gentle Hugs" gave me comfort and she will forever have a "special place" in my heart!! May God Bless Alice on her journey and eternally keep her (and your Dad) in His Care...Until we all meet again someday.. "Gentle Hugs" to you all....
