

Allen Scott Jordan

April 16, 2006

Scott Jordan, formally known as Allen Scott Jordan, died in his sleep at home on Sunday, April 16, 2006 at the age of 54. He was the son of Allen W. Jordan and the late Geraldine Gore Jordan. Scott was proud to be one of the few natives of Horry County. He was a member of the last graduating class of Wampee-Little River High School, attended Clemson University and Horry Georgetown Tec. and graduated from Coastal Carolina University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology. He was also a Certified Electronics Technician. He was self employed. Scott Jordan was a larger than life person who loved puns and a good joke, especially if he could pull it on you. He cared deeply for all his friends, who frequently used him as a sounding board and counselor-in-chief. He loved his adventures on the pontoon boat, music, cooking up schemes and playing bridge. He was our merry prankster. He leaves behind his father and step-mother, Allen W. and Bonnie Jordan; sister Martha J. Adams and nieces Amanda and Alix Adams; and his companion of over 30 years, Shelley Ridout. Graveside services will be held 10:00 am Wednesday, April 19, 2006 at Tilly Swamp Baptist Church cemetery on Hwy 90, Conway, SC. Please come prepared to share your favorite story about Scott. The family will receive friends from 6:00- 8:00 PM, Tuesday at Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel. Memorials may be made to the Amanda and Alexandra Adams Education Fund at Conway National Bank, 1400 3rd Avenue, Conway, SC 29526, or the liberal cause of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ It was great knowing Scott. My condolences to the family##imported-begin##Fred Hamilton##imported-end##

April 24, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ To all and especially Shelley, My deepest sympathy for your loss, which my mom, Barbara Sloan, informed me of recently. Scott was always nice to me and I will remember him fondly. Love, Phil##imported-begin##Phil Kent##imported-end##

April 24, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Scott Jordan. I am truly sorry for your loss. Scott was such a friendly person; I will remember him and his wonderful personality.##imported-begin##Rhonda Livingston##imported-end##

April 19, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ I will truly miss Scott. Though I had not seen him often in recent years, he lives on in my memory. My sincerest condolences to everyone whose lives have been touched by his death. May Scott rest in peace.##imported-begin##Barbara Sloan##imported-end##

April 19, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Shelly & all of Scott's family are in our prayers. We always enjoyed Scott's fun outlook, whenever he & Shelly were in Newberry for a visit.##imported-begin##Johnny & Kathy Lindsay##imported-end##

April 19, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ For Scott: You and Bruce and Shelly taught me to play bridge. I remember playing bridge until the early morning hours. I remember going to New York City with you and Shelly and Bruce in sub zero degree weather. It snowed while we were there and everything was white and clean and frozen. We all stayed in the same room with two double beds and you snored like no one I had ever heard before. I remember walking the streets of Manhattan with you and yelling at Bruce to, "WAIT UP!" I remember the music in the village, the smoky bars where we ate and drank and listened to the up-and-coming singers of the future and stared at 8X10 photos of famous people on the walls of touristy restaurants. I remember your kitchen and your living room in Little River piled high with books, and scattered computer parts, folded laundry, emptied out and half full Diet Dr. Pepper bottles, big cushy chairs, and leftovers - your full head of wavy hair and how it sometimes hung over the rims of your glasses. I remember the smoked turkey sandwiches at midnight - your open arms, your liberal heart and your big beautiful smile. I thank you and Shelly for your unwavering loyalty and love for Bruce, for Maggie and for Kacey - and for many many years for your love for me. I have missed you over the years and miles. I will miss you more now. I will not forget you. Joan Croker##imported-begin##joan##imported-end##

April 18, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Scott, you've rejoined that from which we all came and to which we are all destined. I'll miss you. Shelley, you will always have a warm and caring friend in the upstate. Richard Fuller##imported-begin##Richard Fuller##imported-end##

April 18, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Martha and family...I was so very saddened to read about Scott's death in the paper. Although I had only met him once, I feel as if I know him because I'd heard all of you speak of him so often. My heart goes out to all of you in your loss. I will be praying for God to give you strength and courage to get through this terrible time.##imported-begin##Billie Ann Booth##imported-end##

April 18, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Mr. and Mrs. John B. Lindsay , and Molly Lindsay want all of Scott's family to know that you have the prayers of Shelley's family. We loved Scott as one of our own and will miss him.##imported-begin##Molly Lindsay##imported-end##

April 18, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Shelley, I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I'm in such shock, as I know you are. It's always been "Scott and Shelley". None of this seems real. I won't be able to attend his service due to my own illness, but I wanted to share a favorite memory of Scott. Remember a few summer's ago when we all went out on the pontoon boat? There were those gas tanks on the boat and I kept freaking out about one of Scott's cigarettes losing it's fire and possibly landing on one of those tanks causing an explosion. Being the silly person he was, he decided to light up 3 or so smokes at once. I have a picture of him with those cigarettes hanging out of his mouth with a big grin on his face. I chuckle whenever I come across that photo. He was such an awesome person and he was the type of person one could talk to so easily..... as long as you didn't call before 2 or 3 in the afternoon. Smiles He will be missed so much. I'm so sad he's not with us now. I'm also sad you've lost someone you deeply cared about. I'm not good at this kind of thing, but I wanted to write something to let you know my love is with you. God Bless You..... Suzie###imported-begin##Suzie Holmes##imported-end##

April 18, 2006 at 12:00 AM

“ Even though we get blindsided in life, there are no surprises to God. David and I are praying for His comfort at this time. Margaret & David Gore###imported-begin##Margaret Gore##imported-end##

April 17, 2006 at 12:00 AM