“ I was so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. Please accept my condolences. Your mother was a wonderful person. Cherish the memories that you have of her. I recall so many good times at your house when I was growing up. She was a woman of faith and is definitely in a better place but I know your heart is breaking. Seek comfort and strength through The Lord as he will help you through this most difficult time. --your cousin, Sylvia Harrelson Pate

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as the comfort found in God’s word the bible. In particular the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 which says, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”
