

Alton Wayne Clore

May 27, 1952 - April 13, 2018

Alton Wayne Clore passed away peacefully on April 13, 2018, surrounded by his loving family.

Alton was born May 27, 1952, in Elkin, N.C., and grew up in Myrtle Beach, where his family moved in the early 1960s. He owned and operated Alton's Bedding for many years, manufacturing mattresses for hotels along the Grand Strand.

An avid saltwater fisherman, Alton also enjoyed fossil hunting on area beaches and sharing his knowledge and collection with others. His greatest pride and joy, however, was his family.

Survivors include his wife, Janet Wilson Clore; sons Matthew Wayne Clore and Joseph Larry Clore and wife Shannon; sisters Judy Atkins, Rita Richardson, Brenda Starling and Peggy Andrade and husband Harold; brother Michael Clore; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his parents, Roy and Carleen Clore.

A Sunrise Service celebrating Alton's life is planned at 6:30 a.m. Saturday, April 21, at 2nd Avenue Pier in Myrtle Beach.

The family requests that memorials be made to the NOAH Program at Ark

Animal Hospital, 1011 6th Ave., N., Surfside Beach, SC 29575.

Please sign the online guest register at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel, is serving the family.

Tribute Wall

JR

“ Janet, Matt, Joey and Family:
So very sorry to hear this. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

John Roemer - April 18, 2018 at 10:54 AM

RS

“ We are very sorry to hear about Alton. You are in our thoughts and prayers!

Ronald & Linda Sellers - April 17, 2018 at 09:37 PM

Marcus
Clore

“ Uncle Alton was soft spoken and kindhearted. He was always available to listen and when necessary lend some good advise. I know Aunt Janet, Matt, Joey and really, everyone who knew him will miss him terribly. I know I will.

Marcus Clore - April 17, 2018 at 07:36 PM