“ We all get so wrapped up in our daily lives that its easy to forget the ones we love. I loved my PePa. I will never forget the camping trips or the times he would be in the stands at my football games.I remember one friday night when I was 16 I needed a ride to my girlfriends house..I just had to see her. Realizing my desperation he got dressed It was around 9pmand drove me 18 miles to her house even though he had worked all day and was tired. At the time I didnt realize how special that was, but looking back it was truly an act of love, for me, his grandson. we all need to be special to someone. And I was special to my PePa. I will always love and miss you...and for me you will never be forgotton. Love Always, DeanEBop###imported-begin###Verney D. Tambert###imported-end###
