Al was a big part of the Williams' group here in Iowa. He became a part of our family over 30 years ago and he was one of a kind, who will be deeply missed not only by us, but the entire bail bond industry. We all have a memory we could share about Al and they would all have one thing in common: how much he loved his family and how he adored his wife, Connie.

Our deepest condolences to Connie and his family.

“ As a criminal defense paralegal for over 30 years, I worked with Al serving as a bondsman on many cases. He was tough when he needed to be, but he was also a genuinely good person who always tried to do the right thing. To me personally, he was a loyal & caring friend. He always spoke of his family with love. Under his rough exterior was a kind heart. He fought like a warrior against his disease. I will miss him.
