“ Dear Singleton Family: We, the entire Graham family were so sorry to hear of your loss of Alvin. Mr. Joe's & Mrs. Versie's children/family were our brothers & sisters. We all grew up together. Those great childhood memories are very vivid to all of us today. We were all so close & enjoyed every minute of those wonderful years. We are so sorry We didn't hear of Alvie's death until after the funeral, but we want all of you to know that we loved "Alvie" as we called him; he was always such a "card" with a great sense of humor! and to Elda, Ninaree, Betty, Laura Belle, Dwayne, Winston, and James, please know that our special prayers are with you. We love all of you very much. The Maude Graham Family: Mary Ruth, Ned, John, Tessa & Mrs. Maude.##imported-begin##Tessa Edmondson##imported-end##

“ My Uncle Alvin was a second Daddy to me. Everyone from 5 to 95 says wonderful things about this wonderfully kind and faithful and yet -somehow, still a lot of fun- Christian gentleman... but the one common denominator I kept hearing and feeling and knowing is this: whenever you were around Uncle Alvin, and for a long time afterwards, he made you feel good... the deep down inside, as well as the all over kind of good... to the one-and-only, no-one-can-compare Aunt Hazel, I say thank you for giving us and sharing with us, your precious Alvin... and to Wanda my precious cousin: I love you for who and all that you are... but also because you keep the rest of us going with your Daddy's heart and sense of humor... and I love you as much as I could love any sister or my own daughter... Uncle Alvin's legacy will always live on in you ... and that's forever, xoxoxoxo, Connie##imported-begin##Connie Rankin##imported-end##
