

Alyson Louise McCord Iglesias

August 24, 1988 - October 17, 2020

God picked one of the most beautiful flowers from His garden when Alyson Louise McCord Iglesias, age 32, passed away at home on Saturday, October 17, 2020, after a courageous ten-month battle with cervical cancer.

Throughout her illness, she radiated a positive spirit and her faith never faltered. After her diagnosis, her motto became "win the day," which she did every day with utmost grace. On the day after her diagnosis, she said, "If anyone comes to know Jesus because of my situation, it will be worth it."

Born in Conway, SC, on August 24, 1988, to Bobby and Nancy Martin McCord, she married the love of her life and best friend, Jose Iglesias, on November 12, 2011. Together she and Jose lived life to the fullest as they traveled around the world. They began the early years of their married life in Miami before returning to the Myrtle Beach area.

The dash between Alyson's birth and death was filled with service to others through which she shared her abounding gifts. Her inner beauty captured the hearts of many as she spread love wherever she grew. Her early years were spent in a loving and supportive home where she enjoyed school, church, and dance class. As an honor graduate of Conway High School (Class of 2006), she represented her school as a cheerleader and Miss Conway High School. After high school, nursing became her passion. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Florida International University in 2014 and with a Master of Science in Nursing, FNP from Francis Marion University in 2019. Until her illness, she was employed by Conway Medical Center where she touched the lives of her patients and co-workers. Alyson and her family were especially proud of the completion of the nurse practitioner program, but sadly she was never able to put her certification into practice. Blessed with beautiful blue eyes and a radiant smile, Alyson will be remembered as a down-to-earth, humble, and kind friend. In her 32 years, she left a mark on many lives. She was and continues to be an example and inspiration of a life well-lived, a deep faith that shaped her life, and peace and courage while battling cancer. She inspired others by adding beauty and happiness to their surroundings. Her memory will continue to serve as a beacon of faith, hope, and love.

Survivors include her husband, parents, sister Mary Chelsey Martin (Justin), brother Bryce McCord, in-laws Jose and Alice Iglesias, brother-in-law Andrex Iglesias (Aileen), nephew Nixon Martin, an extended family of uncles, aunts, cousins, and treasured friends. She also leaves behind her three fur babies: beloved Dolce, Buster and Bear.

Graveside services will be held at 10:30 AM Tuesday, October 20, 2020 at Hillcrest Cemetery with Rev. Dave Rickert officiating.

For those wishing to honor Alyson's memory, please consider making a donation to one of her favorite charities, the Waccamaw Youth Center, P.O. Box 3293, Conway, SC 29528.

Goldfinch Funeral Home, Conway Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

“ Nancy and Bobby, I don't know what to say to two awesome parents who just lost their beautiful babygirl! I can only pray that Gods will comfort you and bring you a peace that no one can understand! May you be surrounded by continuous love and support of family and friends. Be proud of yourselves for doing such an awesome job with this gift God gave you of being Alysons mom and dad ! Thank you Lord for Alysons life on this earth while too short in our standards she still managed to make a whole lifetime of difference in many peoples lives. Praying for your whole family. Love, Lana Jones

“ Words can't express the sorrow I feel for Alysons family. She was such a bright and beautiful person. I worked with her at Conway hospital and even though I only worked a few shifts with her, from the first day I met her it was like an instant friendly vibe. She was always smiley and bubbly every time I seen her! She lit up the room! She will be shining down on so many and will be carried with us all. My love, thoughts and prayers go out to everyone this beautiful young woman has touched in her life here on earth. She will be greatly missed but never be forgotten. Xoxo

“ Bobby, Nancy, and Family:

We have been following Alyson and her battle through Facebook. Our hearts are heavy as we think of you and what you are experiencing. Our only solace is one that is not just solace, but Victory and Peace! That is Christ ... we are praying for you and that He will show you immeasurable peace now and in the days ahead. We thank our Father for His perfect plan for all of us and that includes eternity with Him based on our saving knowledge and relationship with Him ...

In Christ,

Kim and Lisa

“ I am so sadden to read this this morning. I did not know Alyson but knew her mother who meant so much to me and of course her dad whom I have know since he was a wonderful young man. But knowing both of them I am sure like her story told that she was a special young lady who has reached into Gods arms with Joy and a smile leaving all her pain behind. Please know that my prayers and thoughts are with you all these coming days.

“ Bobby, Nancy, and family, my heart breaks for you all! Believe me I feel your pain. I did not know your daughter personally but I know she was raised by wonderful parents. That is even more obvious as I read about her accomplishments in life and her faith in death. My wound from almost 7 years ago (Holly Allen) was reopened as I read about her outstanding nursing career and accomplishments. It is hard for those of us left behind to understand God's plan, but our job is not to understand but to trust. I believe your daughter epitomized that In her life and death. Our only hope and comfort is found in God. Our thoughts and prayers are with y'all. Much love, Rachel and Johnny Allen.

“ I remember first noticing Alyson, by the wedding invitation Mr. Paul had on his pin board. She was absolutely stunning. Through the years of taking care of their uncle I became quite close to Mary Chelsey. She would always talk about Alyson. Unfortunately I only had the privilege of meeting her once, it was as Mr. Paul's funeral. She greeted me as if she'd known me her whole life. Telling me about all the stories MC would tell her. Through that one encounter we stayed in contact through social media all these years. I was saddened to see her post back in January that she had been diagnosed with cervical cancer. I thought to myself, here's this beautiful, educated, intelligent woman with her whole life in front of her. She'll beat this. She had to beat this. Around the end of August I realized she wasn't posting much to any outlet. My thoughts were that things were tough but she'd come back stronger than ever. I must admit I was so saddened to see MC post yesterday that she passed. How was that possible? How did such a beautiful humans life get cut so short? To the Iglesias and McCords, I'm so very sorry for this tragic loss. May you find comfort in knowing how many of us her she touched along her short path on this earth. MC I love you always.

“ To the family of Alyson,

Wow, where do I start?! There's no words that can be said to ease the pain, but I just want you all to know that your daughter/sister/wife etc. was one of the most beautiful souls that I've ever known. I haven't seen or talked to her since we graduated from Conway High School, but her actions and the way she carried herself and treated others NO MATTER THEIR RACE left a lasting impact on me. I guess that was the cheerleader bone in her, because even if I wasn't dribbling a basketball or running around on football field, she still rooted for me to be great.

Again, no words can ease the pain, but I hope you all can find comfort in knowing that Alyson lived her life the right way and will surely be cheering for us all from Heaven.

*Sincerely,
