“ Dear Hal, Calahan, and Kendall, I am having such a difficult time trying to understand why Kaye is not here anymore just as you are. I keep hoping to hear her coming down the hall or peeking her head in my room. I will miss her beautiful smile, her sweet personality, but most of all I will miss her friendship. She talked about you and her children all the time. Her family meant the world to her. I am still praying for you and your children. I hope you can take comfort in knowing that our loss is heavens gain and I know she is smiling down on us from heaven each and everyday. I loved her and will miss her greatly. “ Hal and family, This poem was sent to us by Keegan, who worked with Kaye at MBP this year. It's so beautiful, we wanted to share it with you. “You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived. You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she's left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back. Or you can do what she'd want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.”##imported-begin##Maureen Cathey##imported-end##

“ To Kaye's family, I am SO sorry for your loss. The world has lost an amazing woman, but heaven has gained an angel. Kaye was truly an inspiration to me. She was beautiful on the inside and out. She was gentle, yet strong. Her faith was unflinching. She has truly touched my life, and I will never forget her. May God's strength and grace comfort you and your family in this time of need. I will end with one of my favorite scripture verses, Psalms 4:8: "I will lie down and sleep in peace, for you Oh Lord, make me dwell in safety." Sleep in peace, Kaye! I love you, Honey Bunny!
