Cathy and Chase, I was so sorry to hear of Amy's passing; I was hoping she was better and on the road to recovery, she was so loving what was going to be the new Amy in her eyes. God has made her perfect, she earned her wings, no more sickness or any kind of pain, soar high Amy my friend, you fought a good fight, but God needed another special Angel so he chose you. Cathy , I know that Amy loved you so much, she told me what a good Mother you had been to her all her life and how she could count on you, she didn't take you for granted Chase, no Mother could have loved you more than Mama Amy, always remember she's looking down still trying to take care of you, know that she will always love you even though she had to go away, that love will be with you forevermore, don't you ever forget that. You and your Grandmother hold fast to each other, always share your feelings with her, listen when she needs to share her feelings with you, just be there for each other, Amy would truly want that, so please respect her wishes. Always remember God is there for you and that's the best relationship in the world. Love. Hugs and Prayers. God Bless you, all of Amy's family. Rest in Peace Amy.
