“ We met Ari and Voula in 2002 they were our neighbors who became like family to us very quickly. We enjoyed a nice friendship always such a loving man. He was a hard worker and loved his family very much. May he rest in peace as he is now in the house of our Lord Jesus Christ with his family who went before him especially the love of his life Voula. As they are joined together once again. He will be missed by the many family and friends he has. May eternal rest upon you forever amen. Ken & Jackie Atwood
