“ What an amazing young man with so many talents, that should have been shared for many more years. Andre was a great supporter of my students. He worked with many as their internship sponsor/employer and even served on my advisory board for the Web & Digital Communications major at AAST. Thank you Andre and May you Rest In Peace!

Countless of us who call him friend, mentor, and family have been greatly affected by his life. We didn't deserve him and his passing weighs heavily on us all. We love you, Professor!*
