“ To all the family and friends, I am truly sorry for the loss of beloved Angela. My heart goes out to you all. I have only known Angela and Joey for a short time and thoroughly enjoyed their company. We enjoyed the outdoors, picking grapes, talking and talking. She had one of the most precious hearts I've ever known. Her gentle and loving spirit will forever be remembered by not only me but I'm sure many many others. May she rest in peace and may God bless and keep each of you that are left here to live on without her. With love,
Tammy###imported-begin##Tammy###imported-end##

“ Joey, James, Jeremy and Mrs Lila Mae; Not sure if you remember me but I used to hang out with you and Angela. I used to live in Aynor but have moved to Mississippi. I received word last night of the incident and I am so so very sorry for your loss. I wish I knew how to get in touch with you but I dont. Please know that all of you are in my prayers and my thoughts as we know she is pain free and with God, it is still very painful and I am sad. Love to all, be strong and keep the faith. “ Joey, You are in my prayers, I love you dearly I just hate it takes something like this for me to express it. Family sticks together and my family is here for you in any way possible. God is in control and he will take care of you if you believe in him. May God ease your pain, you children and grandchild.
