"I have fought a good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.
Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness."

II Timothy 4:7,8a(NIV)

Angie Fullwood, 43, of Staunton, VA peacefully ended her battle with cancer on Tuesday, June 18, 2013. Angie was born on May 20, 1970 to Fred C. and Helen T. Acree, who preceded her in death.

She was a loyal employee of Waffle House, Inc. in the Human Resources Dept, a job that made the most of her outgoing personality and "gift of gab". Left to cherish her memory are a devoted husband, Chris Fullwood of Staunton, VA, special children of the heart, Ashlee Fullwood of Myrtle Beach, SC and Kemp Fullwood of Staunton, Va., and her son, who stole her heart the day he was born, Bryce Fullwood, of the home, parents of the heart, Charles and Nell Fullwood of Myrtle Beach, SC, and a special brother and sister-in-law, Charlie and Kim Fullwood.

She will also be dearly missed by her brother and sisters, Donald Acree Sr., and wife, Patsy, Linda Acree Raney, and Cindy Acree Draper, and husband Rudy, all of Roanoke Rapids, NC.

Angie was a very special Aunt and touched the lives of her nieces and nephews, Dana, Dee, Donald Jr., Johnathan, Mandy, Rudy, Ellen, and Gray.

A service to honor her life will be held on Thursday, June 20, 2013 at 6:30 p.m. at Harvest Temple Pentecostal Holiness Church, officiated by Rev. Norwood Starling. Visitation will follow until 8:00 p.m. at the church. A service will also be held in Myrtle Beach at 10:00 AM Friday at Ocean Woods Cemetery with Rev. Rodney Hord officiating. “ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“ Angie was by far one of the kindest, most warm hearted individuals I've ever known. She will always hold a special place in my family's heart. When Christian and Bryce became friends, Angie became a second mother to my son Christian immediately. She loved him unconditionally, spoiled him rotten, and always let him know how loved he was by her. Angie will be missed by my family everyday...Christian will never forget all the wonderful times spent with the Fullwood family or all the love he received from Angie.
