“ I am so incredibly shocked and saddened to learn that Angela has left our world so very prematurely. I only met her very briefly when she gave birth to her beautiful baby boy. Her radiant joy brought such a smile to my soul. I had never seen a new mother who was so incredibly happy and proud of the creation she and her husband so lovingly brought into this world. She wanted so very much to meet his every need. He surely felt her great love for him every waking moment. I pray for God's blessings on her husband and their beautiful baby. And also on the grandparents, all of whom she spoke so fondly. It was easy to see she treasured all her family and friends. I will always remember Angela's smiling face and exuberation. She definitely made a lasting impression on me.##imported-begin##Paula Adams##imported-end##
