“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the outpouring of sympathy, the kind acts of friends and strangers, as well as your memories give you comfort to help you endure the days ahead. The Bible also offers comfort. “For God is near to those broken at heart. “ Ps 34:17,18. Our Creator promises that there will soon be a time when “death will be no more.” Revelation 21:4

“Dad it's been a few days since you left us to join the beautiful kingdom of heaven. the last time we spoke I told you that no matter what happens I will still love you forever. I also told you that everything will be ok. I promised you I would take care of mom and the family for you, and if God wants you to join him it will be ok with us. Dad you were the best father, husband, grandfather and friend. The past few days have been a big blur to me and i know while we are getting ready to see you tonight that the boys at the funeral home were getting you ready for us. I can't wait to see you tonight you will lay there in peace with no tubes or wires and no worries about what your health. Thank you dad for making me the person the man that I am today. It has been and honor for me to of help take care of you these past few years, there were good times and bad but somehow you allways kept smileing. So dad I Can't promise that i will be smiling on the outside but in my heart i will allways smile for you. So long dad untill we meet again.

I LOVE YOU FOREVER

“ Words cannot describe how much you meant to me. You provided me the foundation of which I proudly stand on today. You taught me how to love, respect, sacrifice, and forgive. And along with an incredible work ethic and strength, you shaped me into the person I am today. I'll always carry you in my heart and know your guidance will never leave me. You inspired so many people you were around, and made them better people in the process. I love you Dad!

While I didn't really know your father, my dad (Peter Bell) worked with him and was friends with him as well. My father always spoke highly of your father and what a hard-working man he was. I am very sorry for your loss Lou - we lost our Dad in 2001 - so I know how hard it is. Keep all your wonderful memories of him close to your heart always and know that he will be looking over you. Our thoughts and prayers to you and your entire family.
