“ Memories keep flooding my mind. Angie was fashionable. We were always shopping at department stores for new shoes or pants. Angie liked banana peppers on pizza and made the most amazing fake-chicken wraps. She was a vegetarian but hardly ate any vegetables. Cheese fries and a beer, and she was happy. She would have given me the shirt off her back if I asked. She loved her Jeep Wrangler. She loved her Mother and Opal and Marley and Addy. She laughed and the whole world got brighter. Angie Dew was one of the best people I ever knew. I will miss her deeply, and silently, and forever. <3 xoxoxoxo <3

Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support....And look to God's Word, the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; "Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you."

My deepest sympathy.

“ Angie lit up a room when she walked in. Her smile was addictive. She was generous and smart and compassionate, especially when it came to animals. She made me laugh. She warmed my heart, I knew I could count on her when I needed anything. I feel privileged to have been a part of her life and for the time that I spent with her.

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.*
