“ Renee and Larry became our close friends in Christ when we started attending BCBC in 2007 when we moved to Myrtle Beach. Jobs took us back to Indiana but winters there since 2014 we've enjoyed so much their continued friendship and eating out. I so liked sitting beside her many times in choir. She was so sweet and loving and will be missed by many. I'm sure she is singing in that heavenly choir with my husband who just passed on March 18. Hugs to Larry and Lea and the family till we meet again.

“ Renee was a neighbor in Jamestown as was Larry. Renee, Faith Dexter, and Debbie Byrd were all girls who hung around together. We played "dress up" and pushed our "babies" around at my house and played in the playhouse. What fun we all had. So sorry to hear of Renee's passing. Thinking of you Larry.

“ My heart goes out to Larry and all the family. Renee was a sweet classmate, all the way school, 1st-12th. She was smart too. Spent many play afternoons at her home. Her mother Annette was a lovely person as well. Renee will be missed. God bless, she's united with her son. Gone too soon, the both of them. My deepest condolences to Larry and family.

“ We met Pastor and Renee in 2020 when we found a new home at Buck Creek Baptist Church. Renee and I became fast friends from the beginning. She loved music as I do and we even sang together once. We would arrive early on Wednesday evenings and discuss events of the week and usually find something to laugh at. Her smile was always what you saw first greeted with a warm hug. I have many funny stories of time with Renee but my favorite one was when Pastor Larry ask Renee to hold her feet out and she did. He said do you have yours shoes on the the wrong feet? She said she didn't know but they didn't hurt. But indeed they were on the wrong feet and I started laughing before I realized it might have hurt her feelings. So I apologized and she ask why because it was funny to her as well. That's my buddy always finding humor in her situation instead of finding fault. She was and will always be a blessing to those who knew and loved her. She's long for now but soon we will all be together forever. Love always Kathy and Marvin Huber
