“ Several of us went through school together and had Mrs. Winfield for Algebra and Geometry at the old Whitemore school. She was always a good, kind, nice, and knowledgeable teacher. We felt about like her children back then. Conway was blessed to have her in the school system. She made a positive difference in many people's lives. May the good Lord bless her family.

*Dear Danny and Susan,
I just learned of Mrs. Winfield's passing tonight, Saturday. I am very sorry to hear this news. I loved Miz Ann and the good Lord knows she helped raise me at First Baptist. I will miss seeing her in Conway. My mother and I extend our love and sympathy to you both, and the rest of the family as well.*

Linda, Johnny & Danny,

I was saddened to see where your Mother had passed earlier this month. I have great and wonderful memories of your Mother and Father when we were growing up on Hart Street with y'all @ the corner of Hart and 12th avenue. As we all grow older, memories return to remind us that life is short indeed!!

Memories will help guide us through the balance of life that we all face one day at a time.

May God bless you and your families through these coming days with memories of loved ones lost.
