“ Greetings. I was deeply saddened to learn of Pastor Anna Alston's transition from earth to her heavenly home. I join in celebrating Mother Alston's life of faith, commitment and sacrifice to God and humanity. Her legacy of love and service will be eternally etched in the hollows of our (my) heart. I am sincerely grateful to God for the time we shared. I could depend on her love and support. She was my inspiration; I shall miss our talks and her laughs during my visits to Murrells Inlet. May the words from Psalm 34:18 give you peace: "The Lord is near to the brokenbrokenhearted, and saves the crushed in spirit." With deep sympathy, love and prayers, Pastor Constance Nelson Barnes

“ To Phyllis Frazier & family:
My prayers go out to you and the family in your time of sorrow. The few times I'd spoken on the phone with Aunt Anna her spirit of kindness & concern was instantly spiritually in atmosphere. The song "A Mother's Love", by Jim Brickman beautifully, melodically describes the motherly love I imagine in my Aunt Anna.
