“ I remember Lisa when we lived on 8th ave in Conway. Played on a swing at her house. J.C. her dad came to our house as Santa Claus, maybe I was 4 or 5? Really thought it was Santa! Went to her birthday party somewhere in the Jamestown area. I didn t know her well in later years, but her and her family will always be remembered. God bless you.##imported-begin##Derek & Karen Barrett##imported-end##

“ I was so hurt and shocked to hear about Lisa. Kay has just had surgery for the third time, and I have been pretty much tied up with her. I am so so very sorry. God must have really needed another angel to handle a purpose in life. I can't even imagine the hurt you are going through. Please let God comfort you in a way that no other can, and find comfort in knowing she is looking down on you. My thoughts and prayers are with you. “ J.C. and Mona: Renee and I can truly know your grief at this moment, but if Lisa was suffering in her last days, I know that your grief is bitter sweet. Please know that I heart aches with you, but we hold to the promises of our Savior when He spoke to His disciples in John 14: 1-6. One day, He will receive ALL of US into that home prepared for us! What a day of rejoicing that will be, until then....HIS PEACE & STRENGTH!!!##imported-begin##Larry Allen##imported-end##

“ Mr. % Mrs. Bennett & Family, I am so saddened to hear about Lisa. I have so many childhood memories flooding my mind today. We were great childhood friends and I will never forget the stories, love and laughter we shared. Lisa was a terrific person with a glorious sense of humor and would always get a laugh out of me when we ran into each other. She will be missed so much. I love all of you, my prayers and thoughts are with you.##imported-begin##Alice Martin McDowell##imported-end##

“ Jim, our prayers are deeply with you at this time. We did not know Lisa well, but we knew her well enough to know that she was such a bubbly and joyful person. All one had to do on a bad day was to just be in the room with her and sooner or later, laughter would abound. Her passing saddens us, but our faith tells us Heaven is having a Homecoming for sure. Our prayer for you Jim, is that the Holy Spirit fill you with peace in the days ahead, and memories of a life time fill you with joy. She will be so missed. In Christ, Julia & Robert Taylor
