

Anna Lombardo

March 22, 2014

Beloved Aunt Anna was born in Brooklyn, NY, a twin to brother Vincent. Ann was the last survivor of her immediate family. She will be greatly missed by her many friends, nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at St. John Cemetery, Queens, NY, contact Michaels Funeral Home , Queens, NY for information.

Sign a guestbook at www.goldfinchfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

AB

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

A. Bell - March 31, 2014 at 04:00 PM

LO

“ 7 files added to the album New Album Name

Loni - March 25, 2014 at 05:48 PM

LB

“ Anna was one of the founding members of Scrabble Club in Myrtle Beach. She enjoyed the game so much and was a challenging opponent. She last played in the club just a couple of months ago. We miss her.
Linda Bianca

Linda Bianca - March 25, 2014 at 04:19 PM

MC

“ Anna has been my neighbor in Surfside Beach SC for a very long time. My mother and I considered her to be one of our friends as well. Anna is at peace now, and for that I'm very happy. Mary Lynn Castles / South Bay East Condominiums

Mary Lynn Castles - March 25, 2014 at 09:19 AM

BB

“ I met Ann in the mid-1980's when she took several calligraphy and card-making classes available at Myrtle Beach recreation centers. We became fast friends through our mutual love of the hand-written word. I have instructed hundreds of students in the past 35 years, but she stands alone in my memory as my most enthusiastic learner. She was patient, encouraging and generous to classmates. Ann was open to all techniques and styles of "fancy writing" we tried, and recruited many new students to this ancient art. Her humor refreshed everyone and put them at ease, and over the course of time, she told us several stories of her family back in New York, of whom she was very proud. I sincerely extend my sympathy to all those who knew her, because I know what a big hole in your heart she left. May God bless her sweet soul in heaven.

Barbara Brittain - March 25, 2014 at 07:23 AM

MS

“ Maria Schmitz lit a candle in memory of Anna Lombardo

Maria schmitz - March 24, 2014 at 11:33 AM

JO

“ Our most sincere condolences to Anna's family, friends and neighbors. She will be sorely missed by all that knew her. We were friends of her and Bill since the late 1990's. We celebrated every New Year's Eve with Anna since about the year 2000, and she was normally the life of the party. Again, our sincere condolences and we know that she is with the Lord.
Jack and Chris Otis and Family

Jack and Chris Otis - March 24, 2014 at 07:55 AM

LO

“ 10 files added to the album New Album Name

Loni - March 23, 2014 at 06:17 PM

LO

“ 4 files added to the album New Album Name

Loni - March 23, 2014 at 05:44 PM

It was amazing how patient she could be with children. My kids really loved being with her!

Anthony Lombardo - March 27, 2014 at 07:46 AM

LO

“ 2 files added to the album New Album Name

Loni - March 23, 2014 at 05:15 PM

NF

“ 2 files added to the album New Album Name

Nina Lombardo Fiorito - March 23, 2014 at 04:33 PM

LO

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

---

Loni - March 23, 2014 at 03:56 PM

LO

“ 3 files added to the album New Album Name

---

Loni - March 23, 2014 at 03:52 PM

LO

“ Anne was our landlord when my son Robby was born. When she rented us the apartment she said that she didn't want children in the house. I didn't know that I was already pregnant which Anne insisted I did. You see, she also said that she didn't want pets but my husband entered the marriage with a German Sheppard (Lady) and I had a teacup poodle (Bam Bam). When she saw how well behaved they were she allowed them to stay. I had no family to speak of so I was coming home from the hospital to what I thought would be an empty, unprepared apartment. Unprepared because my husband's family believed that it was bad luck to buy anything before the birth of the baby but he was born in the middle of a severe snow storm so no one could even get to us with anything. Although Anne was also Italian, she was not superstitious and had hidden the bassinet and other items I had borrowed or purchased in her basement. The image of Anne standing at the front door when we pulled in is a memory that I will never forget. In that moment I didn't feel alone and whispered to my baby "Look Robby, Anne is waiting for you". She had decorated the white bassinet with a big blue bow and I began to weep at the sight of it. This act of kindness would set the foundation of a mutually love-filled relationship that grew for 37 years. She loved me unconditionally as if I were her daughter; she confided in me as if I were her sister and she was the best friend I always wanted. I will miss her until we meet again.

Loni Wong

---

Loni - March 23, 2014 at 03:38 PM

NF

She waited for Robby to come home from the hospital as a newborn, and waited for him to visit her in the hospital so she could rest in peace.

---

Nina Lombardo Fiorito - March 23, 2014 at 04:25 PM

MS

Marie and I will miss Anne very much we met through Jack/ Chris Otis. had some great parties with her and Bill especially our new Year gathering so much fun. Maria Schmitz. Anne knew us as the M and M""s.

---

Maria schmitz - March 24, 2014 at 11:30 AM

Loni this is a great story. She loved you all so much. It is amazing how fate works to put the right people in each others lives.

---

Anthony Lombardo - March 27, 2014 at 07:44 AM