“ I met Anna at the Arthritis Stretch and Swim Class at the Greenwood Y. At that time, John was a member of the class, too. Eventually a group of us would dine together for lunch every Friday after class. Still have many happy memories of those lunches 🥰 In 2005, my husband passed away suddenly. I will never forget Anna's kindness in helping me to cope with my grief. She called everyday there was no class to make sure that I was doing ok. I cherished her friendship as one of my greatest joys. She will always have a special place in my heart!
In loving remembrance,

“ I was so sorry to hear of the loss of Anna. I met Anna late in her life when I joined the exercise class in the pool at the Y. I loved talking to Anna about her life. She told me once she had shaken the hand of Charles Lindbergh. I was very impressed. I will really miss Anna and all of her wonderful memories. Please accept my condolences.
