“ Your mother and I have known each other since you and Christopher were kids but over the last few months we had become very close sharing stories etc. She is going to be greatly missed by me.

“ Ann was not only our Windjammer Village office staff but along with her husband George, was a neighbor. We enjoyed our visits and chats with them both. Ann helped many fellow residents of the village discretely and kindly. She had her Yankee disposition that helped get her through the hectic days in the office. It was that same stoutheartedness toward her illness that kept her going long past what most other folks could handle. We are sorry for your loss. We rejoice that she is now at peace and reunited with George & your brother. God's love and blessing on them and on you, her son & family. Patti Maxwell-Masotti and Robert M. McNeill

“ I just heard about Ann and was truly saddened. She, and George, were great friends for many a year. Donnie (Swenning) and Ann shared many laughs while working together.

My thoughts are with you. Jean Griggs-Bluewater Ln.
