Ms Coles was my third grade teacher. She was a nice southern lady who stayed in my thoughts throughout the years. She will be missed.

“ I knew Ms. Coles through my great-aunt, Ms.Louise Stone. They taught together and remained good friends throughout the years. She was a sweet lady and always so kind to me whenever I would run into her somewhere. I'll never forgot that she called my mom when my dad died about three years ago. That was so thoughtful of her. Please know your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Johnny, sorry to learn about Annette's death. You have been a great brother and caregiver. She had a good full life. Our daughter Jenny and her family are returning to the US today from China at the time of the services so Emma Lou and I will be unable to attend but we do want you to know we are thinking about you. Hope to see you soon.
